By RACHEL SMITH

A MAN who told cops he drank up to 40 pints of beer every day made obscene calls to an NHS helpline telling female operators he had a permanent erection and could not stop putting items up his bottom.

James Smith, 46, was barred from calling the NHS non-emergency helpline after being jailed for similar offences in July 2021.

But when he was released from prison, Smith, from North Promenade, Blackpool, started calling again.

Waste staff tackle city clean-up op

A MAJOR clean-up operation has begun in Edinburgh as waste and cleansing services resume work after two weeks of strike action by workers.

The city's waste workers walked out on August 18 in a dispute over pay, but returned to work yesterday in the Scottish capital where huge piles of rubbish accumulated in many of its streets. The strike was timed to coincide with Edinburgh's festival season, and spread to dozens of other council areas.

Strikes in other areas end later this week, but another wave of industrial action in cleansing and education sectors will go ahead in many parts of the country next week after unions on Monday rejected the latest "unacceptable" offer from local authorities.

Hundreds of schools will close over three days as education staff join the strike action.

NHS can't cope with demand

THE NHS has "never seen this level of demand", one expert has said.

Matthew Taylor, chief executive of the NHS Confederation, said that the health service is in a "terrible situation" where it is facing "more demand than we can deal with".

He said that the next Prime Minister should have a "realism reset" and set out how to deal with the "current crisis".

Mr Taylor said that pressures in the system were leading to some appointments being cancelled.

LOOKING FOR A NEW JOB, NADHIM?

Soon-to-be-sacked Chancellor flies to US to meet bankers

CHANCELLOR Nadhim Zahawi has flown to the United States for talks on how to tackle the spiralling cost of living.

Mr Zahawi will meet US bankers and officials to seek "international solutions" to soaring costs.

But as this is likely to be his last week as Chancellor, cynics have suggested he'll be chatting up money men for a new job!

Labour criticised the trip, saying he should be focusing on the UK.

The two candidates for PM have signalled they will offer more help when elected on 5 September.

The Government has been accused of not doing enough to help people cope with the crisis, amid warnings the public is facing a dire winter with rocketing energy bills.

Many people are having to make tough choices, such as skipping meals, while others are dreading the colder months ahead.

Both Liz Truss and Rishi Sunak, one of whom will be announced as the next PM, have pledged further support, though neither has given any exact details.

James Murray, Labour's Shadow Financial Secretary to the Treasury, accused Mr Zahawi of being part of a "do-nothing Tory Government", adding the Chancellor was "jetting off to an international chinwag".

"Rather than going on another junket at the taxpayers' expense, the Chancellor should start listening to people here and implement Labour's fully-funded plan to freeze energy bills," he said.

The Chancellor will meet banking chiefs in New York before heading to Washington DC.

ON A TRIP: Zahawi

Burnham: I would run for PM job

MANCHESTER Mayor Andy Burnham says he would consider "one day" running for Prime Minister as leader of the Labour party.

He said his focus is still on his current job and that he supports current leader Sir Keir Starmer, but will not rule out standing in the future.

He said: "Perhaps one day, if that would be something people would support, but not now because we've got a leader of the Labour Party who is providing leadership during the cost-of-living crisis and I'm happy to give my full support to Keir."

"I've got a job to do in Manchester, and I'm making big changes to public transport, which hopefully will get people through this, and that's where my full focus is right now."

"I'm just being honest, in the future, I've said I'll serve a full second term as mayor. If at some point beyond, way beyond this point where we are, that was something that was a possibility, I would consider it."

Olivia cops make further arrests

POLICE in Liverpool have made more than 30 arrests in 24 hours as they crack down on organised crime, after the fatal shooting of Olivia Pratt-Korbel.

Merseyside Police said it had made 32 arrests, carried out 66 stop and searches, executed 11 warrants and seized eight vehicles.

It comes after Olivia, nine, was shot dead in her own home in Dovecot a week ago.

A total of 202 people have now been arrested in the crackdown on gangs.

Two men arrested on suspicion of Olivia's murder were bailed on Saturday.

The schoolgirl was fatally shot after a gunman chased another man - both of whom had no links to her family - into her home.

Her mum, Cheryl, 46, was hurt as she tried to shut the door but the attacker fired more shots.

Team Truss admit

they DON'T KNOW what to do about the cost-of-living crisis

FLIP-FLOPPING: Liz Truss is accused of causing unnecessary worry over our bills

LIZ Truss's team have admitted their boss does not have a clue about how to solve the cost-of-living crisis in Britain.

The Tory party leadership front-runner's camp said she won't finalise her plans for crucial cost-of-living support before receiving the "full support and advice" which is only available to the Government of the day. The public will likely be forced to wait to find out what help they will get with skyrocketing energy bills until Ms Truss is expected to replace Boris Johnson in Downing Street next week.

"flip-flopping" on potential measures to deal with the cost-of-living crisis.

Her campaign, which is under growing pressure to detail how she would help households this winter, said that meetings offered with Government officials to prepare for a possible transition do not cover all the information needed for Ms Truss to make an informed decision.

A campaign source said: "Liz and her team are working to ensure that they are able to hit the ground running if she is elected Prime Minister."

"Access meetings with the Cabinet Secretary have been offered to provide limited briefings to help prepare for forming an administration.

SNUBBED: Nick Robinson

"But addressing the cost of living crisis will rightly require the full support and advice that is only available to the Government of the day."

Over the weekend, the Foreign Secretary's team said she's leaning towards targeted support over help for all, but maintained she is not "ruling anything out", while it was also reported she is considering slashing VAT by five per cent across the board.

Labour condemned the contradictory statements and accused Ms Truss and her rival Rishi Sunak of lacking plans to deal with soaring prices.

Shadow Chief Secretary to the Treasury Pat McFadden said: "This flip-flopping by Liz Truss, floating one policy idea after another, is causing the country unnecessary worry about their bills."

Ms Truss pulled out of an interview with journalist Nick Robinson which was due to air on the BBC yesterday, in which she was expected to have been pressed on her support plan.

UKRAINE BREAKS THROUGH

Russians flee counter-offensive

VOLODYMYR Zelenskyy has warned Russia his troops will "push them to the border" after Ukraine led a counterattack to retake territory in the south.

"We will push them to the border - to our border, the line of which has not changed. The invaders know it well," said the Ukrainian president in his nightly address.

Ukrainian troops broke through Russian defences on the frontline in several areas near the city of Kherson, sending Putin's invaders fleeing, said a senior adviser to Mr Zelenskyy.

Oleksiy Arestovych said the defences were breached in just "a few hours".

The Kherson area, north of the annexed Crimean Peninsula, has been occupied by Russia since the early days of the war.

"If they want to survive, it is time for the Russian military to flee," said Mr Zelenskyy.

However, Russia's defence ministry said the offensive around Kherson, and in the nearby Mykolaiv region, had "failed miserably" with many casualties.

Shelling of Mykolaiv, which Ukraine has managed to cling on to during the war, killed at least two people and injured around 24 others on Monday, according to city officials and witnesses.

OnlyFans beauty's event

A BUSTY TikTok and OnlyFans star had a public appearance shut down by the police due to a near riot breaking out.

All-natural Anna Paul, 23, has been touring as part of her collaboration with activewear brand STAX.

But during the fan meet-and-greet event at Hay Street Mall in Perth, Western Australia, chaos erupted with a massive crowd of teens flocking to see the star.

Organisers expected 200-300 people to show up, but THOUSANDS came to see the beauty's MASSIVE boobs.

Police said they were forced to act after tensions began to boil over among the crowd and queue jumping led to people collapsing and requiring medical assistance.

Chanting

Footage posted to TikTok shows fans stood outside chanting. Cops can be seen trying to disperse them.

A police spokesman said: "Due to the size of the crowd, and lack of appropriate security and other event planning in place to cope with the larger than expected crowd, and also in consultation with the store management, the event was closed down and police commenced dispersing the crowd from the area."

A witness said some fans camped overnight to meet the star.

Anna, of Queensland, who has more than five million TikTok fans and two million followers on Instagram, posted on social media apologising for the event being axed.

She said: "It became a huge safety hazard. I am so sorry. We tried our best to work with the police but it got too much."

Craig's mixed feelings as R2 show is axed

ACTOR and DJ Craig Charles has revealed he has "mixed feelings" about the loss of his BBC Radio 2 show amid the broadcaster's schedule shake-up earlier this year.

The 58-year-old star (above), best known for his roles in Red Dwarf and Coronation Street, presented The Craig Charles House Party on Radio 2 from 2016 until June 18 this year.

Although he will still host The Craig Charles Funk and Soul Show on Radio 6 Music every Saturday, he said: "I have mixed feelings... I can see their point: I'm on 6 Music six days a week, but the Radio 2 performed well."

"They couldn't give me any reason other than they just wanted a change."

"You should never try and join a party if they don't want you as a guest!"

"You cannot do everything. And if something had to go, I'd rather it be that."

40 pint-a-day pest's bizarre calls to NHS helpline

I'VE GOT A STIFFY AND CAN'T STOP PUTTING THINGS UP MY BUM!

OBSCENE: James Smith made calls to helpline

It's Pauline Tan-BOT!

A HOAX caller made obscene 111 calls, telling operators he had a permanent erection and could not stop putting items up his bum.

James Smith, 46, was barred from calling the NHS non-emergency helpline after being jailed for similar offences in July 2021.

However, when he was released from prison, Smith started calling again.

Between 8 September and 11 September, 2021, he made four calls to the service, telling female call handlers he had taken Viagra and had a permanent erection.

Explicit

He said that he was too embarrassed to talk about his problems, to coax the women into using explicit words and phrases, prosecutor Lisa Worsley told Preston Crown Court.

During the calls, Smith, from North Promenade, Blackpool, gave a false name, but the calls came from his mobile phone number.

Ms Worsley said that Smith insisted on speaking to female call handlers due to childhood experiences, but he has not raised any issues during interactions with male police officers or offender managers.

At the time of the calls, Smith was subject to a restraining order which is in place until July 2023, which bars him from calling the 111 service.

He was told of other options, such as 999 or visiting a pharmacy, which could be used in the case of genuine illness or emergency.

Ms Worsley said: "One

By RACHEL SMITH
news@sundaysport.co.uk

call handler described how the call made her feel very uncomfortable and sick. For his own sexual gratification, the defendant has breached the restraining order by making calls to abuse a free, 24-hour service and has prevented people with genuine medical needs from being able to access what's potentially a life-saving service."

In a police interview in September, Smith told officers he drinks between 30 and 40 pints a day and would not remember the calls as he was either drunk or having a fit.

Pub

He said he was aware of the restraining order and that in an emergency he could call 999, but said he would not do that in case an ambulance was called and he wanted to go to the pub.

Smith pleaded guilty to breach of a restraining order and using a public communications network to cause annoyance or distress.

Judge Richard Archer handed him a 12-month sentence, suspended for 12 months, and ordered him to carry out 60 days of rehabilitation activity requirements.

Flooded Pakistan appeals for help

PAKISTAN is facing "a monsoon on steroids", the UN's Secretary General has warned, after floods submerged a third of the country.

Antonio Guterres urged the world to come to Pakistan's aid as he launched an appeal to help the 10s of millions affected in the disaster.

He blamed "the relentless impact of epochal levels of rain and flooding", as at least 1,136 people have been killed so far with roads, crops, homes and bridges washed away across the country.

Pakistan's Climate Change Minister Sherry Rehman described the situation as a "climate-induced humanitarian disaster of epic proportions".

Mr Guterres added: "Today, it's Pakistan. Tomorrow, it could be your country."

Perv jailed for w*inking at window

A MAN has been jailed for furiously masturbating at an OAP in a front window.

Terry Colin Cronin, 41, of Portsmouth, pleaded guilty to indecent exposure and breaching a sexual harm prevention order when he appeared at the city's Crown Court.

The charges relate to an incident in Southsea that was reported to Hampshire Constabulary last year.

On the morning of June 8, 2021, a woman in her 60s was walking along Frensham Road when she saw a man indecently exposing himself and carrying out a sexual act at the window of a nearby property.

Cronin then knocked on the window in an attempt to get her attention.

Police said that these actions put the victim in a "shocking and distressing situation".

I'd drag my balls through a mile of broken glass just to smell of her morning farts

SEXY Dua Lipa showed off her taut body in a green bikini as she shared more snaps from her extended European vacation.

The One Kiss singer, 27, took to Instagram to share a gallery of snaps of her clad in the two-tone swimwear, a day after attending a friend's wedding in Charleval, southern France.

But when the photos were shared on the Daily Mail's website, they attracted the attention of that once-respectable newspaper's dirtier readers.

Inflamed by the sight of a confident young woman in beachwear, they let their warped lusts run away from them and leak onto the Mail's website in a tsunami of filth.

One ratbag rasped: "Would like to play naked leapfrog with her," while another slavered, "could give a dead man wood."

And user Drill More Oil even drooled: "I'd drag my balls through a mile of broken glass just to smell her morning farts."

Last night a fan of the London-born singer said: "Even if a man dragged his testicles through broken glass, the idea that Dua would reward his devotion by allowing him to part her shapely bum cheeks and inhale her arse gases is, frankly, delusional."

A MAN was busted for installing a spycam in a public beach's toilet and filming users.

Dana Alan Caruso, 58 (above), of New Hampshire, was held at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport and is now awaiting extradition to Lee County in Florida.

The camera was found after a Sanibel Island maintenance worker noticed what looked like a suspicious new fire alarm in the toilets at Bowman's Beach.

Sanibel cops got a search warrant to probe the contents of the alarm and found a camera inside it.

They later tied the device to Caruso and tracked him down.

Cops said several people were recorded inside the bathroom and are asking anyone who went to Bowman's Beach to contact them.

"We would like to identify victims of this crime so additional charges against the suspect can be filed," Sanibel Police Chief William Dalton said.

He urged police departments in nearby communities to check their beach loos for similar devices.

That's the warning from cancer docs who claim storing up your seed is storing up problems.

Researchers at Harvard University made the discovery after studying 31,925 men, who filled out questionnaires about ejaculation frequency between 1992 and 2010.

The survey, published in European Urology, found men who ejaculate at least 21 times a month could see their chances of getting prostate cancer slashed by a THIRD.

The study said: "We evaluated whether ejaculation frequency throughout adulthood is related to prostate cancer risk in a large study.

"These findings provide additional evidence of a beneficial role of more frequent ejaculation throughout adult life."

Teacher used pupil, 17, 'for her pleasure' LESBIAN PE MISS CAUGHT IN SHOWER WITH TEEN GIRL

GUILTY:
Lee Joyce
Dunbar is still to be sentenced

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

A WOMAN who was groomed and sexually abused by her PE teacher was dehumanised into an object of pleasure.

Lee Joyce Dunbar hid behind her position as a physical education teacher at Beacon Hill High School in Sydney, Australia, in order to manipulate the then-17-year-old's mind, provide her with false friendship, isolate and abuse her.

"I was just a child and she was my teacher – I didn't stand a chance," the victim told Dunbar's sentence hearing in Downing Centre District Court.

Due to face trial last week, the 69-year-old offender made a late offer to plead guilty to one count of indecent assault with a female person over the age of 16 years.

Prosecutors accepted it and withdrew four other counts of the same offence.

Facing her abuser in court, the victim said she had been a bright and popular girl at school, only to graduate broken, isolated, suicidal, and unable to trust people.

The largest adverse impact was her relationship with her mother, who interrupted Dunbar and the girl in the shower one day.

While inadvertently contributing to the abuse ending, the mum failed to understand what had occurred and from then on, could hardly look at her daughter.

Breakdown

That breakdown flowed on to her relationships with her siblings, and later her own children's relationship with their grandmother.

"I lost my mother's respect and affection. Or rather it was stolen from me, a basic right of every child taken," she said.

Dunbar will be sentenced at a later date.

A spokesman for Royal Mail said: "If the matter occurs again the box will be sealed permanently."

TEACHER NICKED FOR HIDING MISSING TEEN

A TEACHER was arrested for allegedly hiding a teenager that had been reported missing for days inside her home, police said.

Investigators were trying to locate the minor when they received information from the boy's parents that led them to the Port Charlotte, Florida, home of Kelly Simpson, 31, the Charlotte County Sheriff's Office said.

Police found the teen inside her home and Simpson (below) was arrested for interfering with the custody of a minor.

According to the sheriff's office, Simpson picked the boy up from an unknown location and hid him at her home, knowing that he was reported missing.

The Charlotte County School District has since put her on administrative leave from her position at Charlotte High School.

A spokesman said: "The safety, protection, and wellbeing of our students are a top priority."

Man nicked in hooker sting – on honeymoon

A MAN was arrested on his honeymoon after he answered an ad for a prostitute, only to arrive at a hotel and find a detective waiting for him instead.

Paul Turovsky, 34 (above), was in Tampa, Florida, after getting married on July 15.

His new bride fell asleep, so he went online to search for a hooker.

Unaware to him, Hillsborough County sheriffs were conducting a sting operation to clamp down on human trafficking, sex with minors and prostitution.

Turovsky is believed to have tried to solicit an adult prostitute.

When he arrived at the Hyatt hotel in Tampa, he was placed in handcuffs. He was just one of 176 men arrested in the sting.

Chad Chronister, the Hillsborough County sheriff, said: "As a wedding guest, was it too late to get the gifts they gave returned?"

A SCANTILY-clad swimmer was blasted after a viral vid showed her wearing an "inappropriate" G-string swimsuit at a waterpark meant for families.

The unidentified woman was seen splashing about in the daring cossie in footage posted to TikTok last week by user Kim Stram.

"Is this appropriate for a family waterpark or NOT?" Stram asked in the clip, which has been viewed more than four million times.

Arse

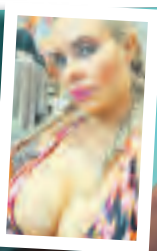

The video shows the woman clad in the nude-coloured swimsuit, which is backless, leaving her peachy arsecheeks on full display.

Stram did not disclose the name of the waterpark where she shot the clip.

But hundreds of stuffy viewers slammed the woman in the daring outfit.

However, to these sad puritan prudes, we say: "Fk off!"

Midweek Sport is a big fan of the G-string and here are FIVE pages of 'em to show our support!

STATE trooper Nik Green was an everyday hero: a devoted dad to three daughters, a loving husband, and someone who wore his police badge with pride. But when Nik tragically crossed paths with drug fiend Ricky Ray Malone, he was executed in cold blood by the side of the road...

HONEST AND DECENT: But cop Nik Green was shot with his own gun

HERO COP BEGGED FOR HIS LIFE

MONSTERS OF DEATH ROW
THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS
AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO EXECUTION...

OKLAHOMA Highway Patrol lists Nik Green's "end of watch" as Boxing Day 2003.

But Nik, 35, didn't just finish a shift – he punched out for good in a hail of bullets fired by Ricky Ray Malone.

Nik had earlier begged for his life – a heart-breaking video recording from his patrol car attests to that fact.

But Malone showed no mercy. Instead he taunted and teased a stricken Nik before gunning him down in cold blood.

The outpouring of love for Nik when he was cruelly murdered shows just how much respect and admiration he commanded.

Colleague Cpt Bret Camp described him as "one of the best men I have ever known," and trooper Duane Johnson added:

"Nik Green was one of the kindest, most decent and honest people ever to have lived."

"He was as good as they get as a trooper and a lawman. I miss him every day."

When Malone was sentenced to death for the ghastly crime in May 2005, Nik's wife Linda buried her head in her hands and wept uncontrollably – she still had to take care of their three daughters Cortni, Brooklyn and Morgyn.

Linda, who was forced to quit her job as a primary school teacher to deal with the fallout from her husband's slaying, says her faith in God somehow kept her strong through the bleak, dark days.

Speaking in 2015, Linda said: "Nik's first priority was God, then myself and the girls."

"When everything happened, I had to stay focused on living as I had to take care of my children."

Sweethearts

"That's what God wanted and that's what Nik would have wanted. We were the remnants. We were what was left. We just had to carry on."

Linda and Nik had been sweethearts as teenagers, having first met at Pasture High School in Randlett.

On the morning of his murder – the day after Christmas – Linda was woken early by her husband.

Nik had got up three hours early for work, kissing her goodbye while she dozed.

Court documents state: "Linda Green testified about what she overheard from their bedroom on the morning of December 26, 2003."

"She said someone had come to their door, then her husband came to kiss her goodbye, already in uniform, and told her he was going to go in early that day."

"She then described her mounting anxiety that morning as she began to get information that something might be wrong – before she was eventually told by a dispatcher that her husband was dead."

So who had come to the door, rousing Nik from his sleep?

It was Abigail Robles, a woman who delivered newspapers and who knew Nik.

While out driving, she'd spotted a white car parked at the side of a rural dirt road.

Inside the car there was a man slumped in the driver's seat, his feet hanging out of the vehicle.

Abigail was worried the man might be dead so she drove straight to Nik's house to ask him to help.

Despite not having clocked on yet, Nik was more than happy to answer the call of duty.

Court files reveal: "Nik Green had been

DEALER OF DEATH: Car's dashcam shows Malone blasting Nik in the head sleeping but was woken by the knock on the door.

"He listened to Robles's story, told her not to worry about waking him, and reassured her that he would check out the situation."

The man lying slumped in the car was Malone, a former firefighter who'd fallen on hard times.

He'd started making his own methamphetamine – a drug known to trigger vivid hallucinations and violent behaviours.

When Nik arrived at the scene, it must have been obvious to him that Malone had been making meth in his car, using it as a mobile laboratory.

The legal files reveal: "According to statements made by Malone, Trooper

Green arrived at the scene and attempted to rouse Malone by talking to him and shining a light in his face.

"Green informed him he was under arrest."

"He was able to get a handcuff on Malone's right wrist before he decided that he wasn't going to go quietly back to jail."

Pistol

"Malone somehow broke free and a battle ensued between the two men that tore up the grass and dirt and knocked down a barbed wire fence."

"Malone's cap ended up in the fence, while Green's baton and a Glock 9mm pistol were left lying in a ditch."

NO MERCY: Malone faces the news that he is heading for Death Row

Nik is also heard saying he's married and begs Malone not to shoot him. Malone at first appears in two minds as to what he's going to do. He tells Nik that he won't shoot him as long as he stays still and tells him where the key is for the cuffs. The court documents reveal: "When Green suggests he has another set of keys in his vehicle, Malone responds, 'I don't need to know'. Green seems to recognise the significance of this statement and, after a few seconds, begins pleading, 'Please don't. For the name of Jesus Christ. He'll deliver. Lord Jesus!'" that he was dead." Malone sought refuge with friends, telling them: "I killed him, I killed him. I killed a cop."

He told pal Jaime Rosser: "I shot a highway police officer two times in the head."

"On the first shot, the bone part of the skull stuck to the gun, so I shot it again to get the gun clean."

Three days later, Malone was in police custody being charged with Nik's murder.

Meth

During his trial, he tried to argue that he shouldn't get the death penalty because he'd been so out of it on meth he wasn't responsible for his own actions. But a jury thought otherwise.

And a victim impact statement read by wife Linda brought the court to its knees.

The official documents revealed: "Linda Green described being in denial about her husband's death for months. She told how hard it was to find herself raising three children alone."

"She described having deep, gripping, physical pain, which she attributed to having 'broken heart syndrome'."

"The fight resulted in numerous scrapes, cuts, and bruises to both men."

The scrap lasted for around six minutes. We know this because the dashcam on Nik's patrol car recorded the whole thing.

While the video doesn't show the men fighting, it does record harrowing audio.

At some point, Malone gets the upper hand and tells Nik not to turn over.

Nik tells Malone that he didn't have a problem with Malone and that he came to help him.

He tells Malone: "Hey, run if you want to go but leave me. Please! Please! I've got children."

DRUGGIE BRUTE'S SEX ACT WITH PAL'S DOG

PIC posed by model

Sicko avoids jail for vile antics

A DRUGGY brute who performed a sex act with a friend's DOG has avoided prison.

Anthony Dennis Stokes, 51, was using methamphetamine when he filmed himself performing sex acts with and on the mutt.

Judge Timothy Heffernan said the offending, between January and September 2019, involved a dog belonging to a woman Stokes met in 2018.

He had stayed at the female's home for a brief period in 2019, as he helped her move house.

In June 2020, the woman found a memory card in her new home she didn't recognise.

After accessing it, she found a video of Stokes engaging in a sexual act with her dog.

Semi-erect

It showed Stokes touching the dog's genitalia and encouraging it to lick his "semi-erect" penis.

The dog's owner was "distressed and sickened" by the video and alerted police, who held Stokes in November 2020.

At Adelaide Court in South Australia, Judge

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Heffernan said Stokes had declined to answer police questioning but indicated he did know what they referred to.

Prior to the offending, Stokes started using methamphetamine and had lost his job.

Judge Heffernan said: "I am satisfied that you were not motivated in committing the offence by any genuine sexual attraction to the dog but rather by the impact of methamphetamine intoxication."

He was given a two-year suspended sentence.

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Why did Beeb ignore Reading Festival riot?

IF you believed what the BBC likes to tell you, then it is the young who rule the world.

Bit too hot today? Get Greta on the phone!

Voting reform? Find someone with spots and put 'em on the radio!

Brexit? Have a student cry on camera about how "we" have stolen their future.

The young can do wrong. From climate forecasting to trans rights to "hating" the Government, there is nothing the Beeb doesn't think the young should be listened to on.

Now, Auntie likes to say she can't do right for doing wrong when it comes to complaints of political bias.

Only last week their recently departed presenter Emily Maitlis was essentially complaining that while hosting Newsnight, she should really have been allowed to slag off anything of which she disapproved.

And because she was talking about Brexit and the Government – and its ex-dark arts master Dominic Cummings specifically – the Beeb faithfully reported her comments, too.

Youthfulness

But it seems there are some stories about youth and youthfulness that are just too difficult for the biggest taxpayer-funded news organisation in the world to cover.

Take Bank Holiday just gone. As to be expected, the corporation's main news homepage had a story about energy prices.

There was something about an unmanned rocket taking off in the United States.

Floods in Pakistan. Taylor Swift's new album.

A bloke who has always lived alone in the Brazilian rainforest sadly popping his clogs.

And – but of course – a report on how the European Union, of which we are no longer a member, nonetheless faces ruinous bills this coming winter unless there's a price cap on gas.

So that's one out of its six main offerings all about things happening in other parts of the world, and only one about events here that just so happens to (rightly) hurt the Government.

Alas, this meant there was no space on what is effectively its front page to report on what happened at the Reading Festival on Sunday.

Some of the young people the BBC

NOT COVERED: Unruly behaviour at Reading

normally relies on for its pearls of mystical wisdom decided to rip things up.

High as kites on drink and drugs, they started screaming and scrapping with each other.

Lads exchanged punches while harpies with pram-face hair egged them on.

Full cans of beer were used as missiles.

And then some particularly special sort of idiot began setting fire to festivalgoers' tents and then all hell let loose.

Yet none of this appeared on the BBC News homepage.

They were far more concerned with news about countries where their citizens are not obliged by law to pay for the BBC.

But should the chance arise for them to report on the tedious suggestion that the voting age should be dropped to 16, Auntie and her troopers are all over it like a rash.

Raving

The idea behind the plan is to stuff the electorate with lefties – as almost all young people are raving Corbynites until they grow up – and vote to keep the Tories out for evermore.

It never occurs to them that some of these left-wing, idealistic, LGBTQIABCXYZ+! supporting, plant munching, climate change fanatic, anti-Brexit, immature louts would most certainly have been at Reading.

Then again, knowing that lot, they'll probably claim it was a "peaceful protest".

The cops will largely ignore it.

And the Beeb can go back to telling us what's going on everywhere else in the world but here.

Drink drive woman did jig for cops

A DRIVER quizzed by police performed an Irish jig for them, in an attempt to prove she wasn't pissed up.

Amy Harrington, 38 (above), of Madeira Beach, Florida, had rear-ended another car near her home and when Pinellas County deputies arrived, they noticed her eyes were bloodshot and watery.

Harrington tried to walk a straight line during a sobriety test along a parking space marker when she gave up and started dancing.

She "struggled to follow instructions, and was unsteady on her feet – almost falling," according to arrest documents.

Harrington danced wildly before she was asked to walk the line.

"Do you want to pay attention so I can give you the instructions?" a deputy administering the test asked.

"Yeah, well, you sound like my ballet coach, so, sounds about right," Harrington said.

She later refused testing and was charged with driving under the influence.

Sex Ed Miss is sorry for spunk homework

A SEX education teacher is facing the sack after asking her male students to bring a condom to class – filled with their own SEMEN.

Parents saw red at the lesson, which was supposed to be part of a sex education class on the male reproductive system, and now it could cost the female teacher her job.

The unique approach to lesson time was due to take place at the Juana Azurduy de Padilla school in the municipality of Minero, Bolivia, by teacher Maria Inés Peredowho.

Although it has been stressed the students were not obliged to do the "homework", Peredowho has apologised for the "misunderstanding", which is alleged to have led to accusations of corruption of minors.

"I am a mum and not a pervert," she said.

PORN BABE MAKES A MINT BY PICKING HER NOSE...

THAT SNOT VERY NICE!

THEY say that all tastes are catered for in the wacky world of porn...

But what about NOSE PICKING fetishes?

Well, yes, there are even vids for that bizarre kink, and an adult content creator calling herself Pink Moon Lust is making a pretty penny from it.

Nose picking is just one of the weird and wonderful fetishes catered for by the US-based porn beauty.

Bogies

In her snotty clip, she is filmed with her mouth wide open, giving a view of her tonsils, before using a finger to rake for bogies.

According to her profile on grot megasite PornHub, Pink Moon Lust also enjoys: "Being mega hairy, peeing & farting, roleplay, female ejaculation, (squirting), spit & spitting, sucking licking & gagging on cock balls, & toys... eating girl food, kissing, dancing, latex gloves, squirting pussy orgasms from ANAL penetration, small anal toys, clitoris worship, clitoral orgasms, G-spot orgasms, tantric orgasms, BDSM, orgasms from pain, nipple clamps/nipple pain, orgasms from breast stimulation only, spankings, whips, eye contact, primal orgasms, loud orgasms, moaning, loud moaning, screaming orgasms, saying your name when I cum..."

She adds: "I want to make you spontaneously orgasm when you look into my eyes, I want you, from the bottom of your feet, to your eyes, past your crown, to achieve full body orgasm with your entire being. I want to make your entire being orgasm, I want you to realise, to notice your lungs working more as magical orgasmic portals than human lungs at all.

"I want to feel your wonder and amazement, your energy in its most delectable forms as you fall into further consciousness, literally. I want to watch you drown in the metaphysical bewilderment that comes with spiritual awakening itself as I bust you open beyond sexually... metaphysically.

"I want to make you know Heaven is on Earth. I want you to know what humans ever spoke of they spoke of bliss and religious rapture. Thank you."

One viewer gasped: "Well, that's, er... specialist."

TRAMP STRIPPED IN POST OFFICE

POLICE are looking for a homeless man who they say broke into a post office, took his clothes off and threatened an employee.

Cops released surveillance images (left) which they said show Cody Vasey – known as a local tramp in Redding, California.

He is wanted for breaking into the post office on Yuba Street in Redding in the early hours.

Police said an employee went into work and found Vasey naked inside a staff toilet, and he threatened to hurt her.

She left and said the man locked himself inside.

Broken

Officers later found broken glass and other damage inside the post office.

Officers discovered a glass security door damaged inside the main reception area as well as a damaged vending machine inside a staff room.

Items has been stolen from the machine.

Officers said they located evidence at the scene that led them to identifying Vasey as the suspect.

An arrest warrant has since been issued for him and he now faces charges of burglary, vandalism, and criminal threats.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Lexi,

I RECENTLY split up with my girlfriend after she cheated on me with a friend.

I've since got a new girlfriend and she's everything I could dream of – she's beautiful, kind, considerate and we have a pretty good sex life.

But here's the thing, I want my old girl back because she was a right dirty cow who gave blowjobs like a porn star. She'd let me climax all over her boobs, on her face or in her mouth.

She'd lick my knob every morning and night, taking me to the back of her throat until I shot my load. She also gave the most stunning tit wanks I'd ever had.

She called me the other day to suggest we try again. I'm sorely tempted. But I don't want to be humiliated again.

What should I do?

JF, Tyneside

Lexi says...

MAYBE your new girl will learn to suck you off like a porn star too.

Dear Lexi,

I AM a decent-looking 45-year-old window cleaner and I recently got lucky with a 54-year-old hairdresser.

I'd only be cleaning her windows for a few weeks when she asked me in for a drink when none of her neighbours could see me at the back of her house.

Once we'd had a few drinks she invited me through to her bedroom. She slipped down her skirt to reveal she was wearing a pair of suspenders and stockings.

She got on her knees, popped out my massive hard-on and began to run her tongue up and down my length.

Then she took me to the back of her throat and was soon heartily gulping down my spunk.

When she'd finished, she explained it was cheaper than giving me a tip at Christmas.

I'd like to ask her out proper. What do you think?

RD, Wiltshire

Lexi says...

WHY not? Then you can give each other a regular squeeze.

Mystery fishing lodge babe loves playing with my rod

Dear Lexi,

YOU may not think that fishing is a particularly sexy hobby, but you'd be dead wrong.

I'm 45 and was divorced a few years back by a woman who said I was a boring old sod, who was clearly more interested in angling than in her.

Okay, I must admit to being a keen fisherman and I like nothing better than staying out all night dangling my rod in the water.

The lodge where I go is nice and quiet and I've caught some huge fish there.

But last month, completely out of the blue, a woman appeared at my side and started to watch me fish.

She said that for some reason the sight of a man with a mighty rod in his hand got her going.

Now while I was a bit annoyed that she had interrupted my hobby, I have to admit she was quite good looking and appeared to have a very nice figure.

I didn't want her to disturb the fish, so I took out my tool and let her play with it for a bit, in the hope that she would eventually fk off.

But she keeps coming back each night I'm there and has even begged me to shag her.

What should I do?

TB, Cumbria

Lexi says...

YOU really ARE boring. Get your tackle out and give her what she wants.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week LEXI LOWE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

I want my missus to eat cock – not cake!

Dear Lexi,

MY missus and I have been together for 14 years and it's been pretty good.

Her love is food and my love is shagging – and I've put up with her piling on the pounds because she's always given me a fair amount of it. We've always done it in the missionary position and never bothered with any kind of foreplay or deviation.

That's been fine with me, because I've been able to get my end away three times a week.

But last week, my brother showed me his secret porn stash and I saved them onto a drive.

Back home, I crept off to the bedroom to view it. I didn't expect to be turned on and the doggy-style sex and woman on top did nothing to excite me.

But then I watched this gorgeous blonde suck off some bloke and I was hooked.

I'd never seen someone give a blowjob before and it never occurred to me it'd look so good. She started off by licking his purple helmet when his cock was floppy, slowly working her tongue down the shaft until his dick started to get hard.

I could tell even without looking at the bloke's face he was having the time of his life.

His cock went from three inches to a whopping seven inches of pork sword.

Then the blonde took almost all of his length in her mouth while working the bottom of his cock with her hand.

Spurting

She was thrusting her whole head up and down his shaft in a way that hypnotised me.

I didn't even realise I'd got my raging member out of my pants and was wanking myself off until I came with a shudder and spurting my hot joy juice all over the front of my laptop.

I sat there, spent cock in hand, until she finished him off – pulling away as he came so that his spunk went all over her face.

Suddenly, after 14 years, I knew my regular dose of missionary wasn't enough any more.

I knew I needed my wife to go down on me and give me a good gobbling, or I wouldn't be able to control this new desire taking over me.

I rushed down to the kitchen to find my missus sat at the table, munching a huge piece of cake.

Watching her mouth engulf the moist sponge made me weak at the knees, but I didn't know how to say I wanted my cock to be that piece of cake.

What should I do?

SF, Merseyside

Lexi says...

ASK her! She can only say yes or no.

Dear Lexi,

I AM a 32-year-old single male trainspotter, which usually scuppers my chances of any action with the ladies.

I've always been able to count on one hand the number of times I have got my leg over.

But my situation changed dramatically when I joined a new locomotive fanciers' club in the area where I live.

The members were not only interested in trains, they were also very friendly.

In particular, there was an attractive blonde with enormous boobs who immediately caught my eye.

We got chatting on the first night and instantly hit it off.

A few weeks later, after a trip out to see an impressive steam engine, she invited me back to her apartment.

One thing led to another and we were soon naked and rolling around the living room.

She was dynamite in the sack – sucking me off with great gusto and then demanding I "enter her tunnel with my engine".

I see her three times a week and the sex is great, but I can't help thinking she's a bit odd.

Any advice?

KS, west Yorkshire

Lexi says...

BE thankful a girl wants to blow your whistle!

Anti-English?.. I had a Wales of a time!

Dear Lexi,

I WENT on a much-needed break to Wales and had been warned to be a little wary of the women there, as they were supposed to be anti-English.

How wrong can you be?! Within an hour of parking up my campervan on a nice site, I was being chatted up by a busty blonde lady in a bar.

She invited me back to her place and wasted little time getting my English cock out.

She sucked me off and then made me come all over her massive knockers.

Then I licked her out and was pleasantly surprised to find her hairless – even her armpits!

I then did her from behind and was invited to do her up the wrong 'un, too, which I managed with relish.

Stunning

I met up with her the next night and this time she brought a pal with her. Her friend was a stunning brunette with an equally stunning body.

After a few drinks we went back to my campervan and I had the pair of them.

I also enjoyed a tremendous wank as I watched them at it in the 69 position.

This blonde bird has now asked me to move to Wales – so all three of us can fk as often as we like.

I'm tempted, but I have a really good job in the area where I live.

What do you think I should do?

OH, east Midlands

Lexi says...

MAKE regular trips in your campervan to keep her sweet.

SEXY Marina Visconti didn't get much chance to show off her fantastic boobs in her home town of Moscow.

That's why she travelled to the West, to make her fortune as a boobs-and-fanny-out model – long before her benighted nation became an international pariah.

And Marina is more than happy to show off her fantastic 34E charms in the safety of a western photographic studio.

The beauty said: "British men love big breasts and I have a huge following in this country."

"Every time pictures of my boobs get published, I get a flood of fan mail."

"Some of it is quite explicit and men tell me they would like to fk my big boobs and spunk all over my neck."

"I like anal, too."

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDS FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

ADELE STEPHENS

PERSONAL trainer Jon Taylor wouldn't mind working up a sweat with sexy glamour legend Adele Stephens.

The Bath fella, 23, reckons the Adele would be a perfect workout partner – but he could get distracted by the Wakefield stunna's giant 34D boobs.

He said: "Adele has an amazing figure – just look at her waist and her amazing boobs."

"I'd love to show her around my gym and get her pumping some iron. "If I'm lucky, she might even pump mine as well!"

SHARON LEE

SEXY Sharon Lee has been requested by TWO randy readers this week.

Demands for pics of the 32D babe came from two blokes from her home manor of Wembley, north London.

Chip shop owner Charlie Brady, 48, wrote: "She's easily the fittest girl to come out of north of the river, I'll give her a free fish supper any time."

And builder Dariuz Pjostr, 50, said: "I'd love to show Holly just how good I am with my hands!"

Here you go fellas, share nicely!

"In fact, I could cook her a Sunday roast at my pub and then we could go upstairs – so we can have some dessert!"

DELIGHT:
Robinson at Old Trafford

Ollie's fighting fit for England

OLLIE Robinson has revealed how embracing life as a "gym freak" helped put his England career back on track.

Robinson made his first Test appearance in seven months at Emirates Old Trafford, helping to wrap up an innings victory over South Africa with match figures of five for 91.

The 6ft 5in seamer was all smiles as he put the finishing touch to the three-day finish in Manchester, clean bowling Lungi Ngidi, but it took plenty of hard work and some frank conversations to reach that point.

Despite a fine record in his first year with England – he has 44 wickets in 10 games at a slender average of 20.93 – Robinson's fitness was publicly called out by bowling coach Jon Lewis during the final match of last winter's Ashes.

Back spasms then saw him unable to take the field in all three Tests against the West Indies, while his return to county cricket with Sussex was interrupted by COVID and dental problems.

But the 28-year-old dedicated himself to putting things right. Now he is back winning matches for his country.

"It's not been easy but we're an honest group. I took that stuff on the chin and took it as a wake-up call as well," he said.

By GEOFF TRUEMAN

"I've used that to drive me forward in the last six months and, when times have got tough, I've just used it as a drive to try and keep positive.

"My mindset shifted from trying to be fit for fitness testing to trying to be fit for five days of Test cricket at a high level. I lifted weights, I ran further, everything I was doing before but to the extreme.

"I spoke to Ben quite a lot in depth. When he first started international cricket he wasn't in the shape he is now and I talked to him about how he got there – mentally, physically, the lot.

Finished

"It's an enjoyment now. I've become a bit of a gym freak, which I never thought I'd say. I wake up in the morning and I'm like 'I've really got to go to the gym'. Running three times a week, gymming three times a week, it's just ingrained in me now which hopefully will help for years to come. It's become a bit of a habit whereas before it was a chore.

"I'm not there yet, I'm not the finished article at all, but we're well on the way to getting there hopefully."

He also suggested Lewis' initial intervention was effectively a case of tough love.

"People don't realise that me and Jon go back quite a long way, he was my bowling coach at Sussex for three, four years, so we do have that honest relationship," he explained.

"We spoke about it and moved on."

Robinson proved himself ready for another shot at Test cricket with a promising display against the Proteas for the second string England Lions, an outing which Stokes said earned him the new ball at Old Trafford.

That meant breaking up the long-established partnership of James Anderson and Stuart Broad, a watershed moment that saw the latter waiting for his turn for the first time in years.

"I think I read it was the first time since 2013, but Stokesy said 'don't worry about that, do your thing', Robinson said.

"I wasn't expecting it, I only got told 10 minutes before we were going out.

"Watching those two has been inspirational for me. That's how I want to be. I want the crowd cheering my name and that's what I'm driving to do.

"I don't want to do this for 18 months, I want to do this for five, six years, and I feel more driven today than I did at the start of my career."

WE'VE GOT ALL THE BIG SPORTS STORIES COVERED

I'll still spend wisely says Ed

LOADED NEWCASTLE GAFFER OUT TO GET VALUE FOR SAUDI MONEY

NEWCASTLE boss Eddie Howe has insisted the process of signing players is the same whether he is shopping in the bargain basement or at top-end stores.

The Magpies smashed their record transfer fee last week when they clinched a deal understood to amount to £58m for Real Sociedad's 22-year-old Sweden international striker Alexander Isak.

That took their spending since the club's new owners took up the reins to around £210million.

It is all a far cry from Howe's early days at Bournemouth, when he operated on a shoestring budget and had to develop the players he already had, but he is adamant he still goes about recruitment in the same way.

Asked about the contrast,

By JOHN ANTHONY

the 44-year-old said: "I feel exactly the same, to be honest."

"In my early days, we were looking at free transfers, out-of-contract players, but you are still trying to find the right fit for your team."

"You're trying to find the right characters that will benefit the group. Then you have to mould those players around the team."

Performing

"It doesn't change, the process is exactly the same. What does change is the perception of everyone else because you're outlaying a big sum of money for a player, but the process does not change."

"You still have to find the right player and you have to visualise that player in your team, performing well and what he will bring."

"So the money, really, is irrelevant. It's the media spotlight that is the big difference."

Isak, the club's fourth summer acquisition after Matt Targett, Nick Pope and Sven Botman, could get his first chance to impress at Wolves on Sunday with Callum Wilson in the treatment room once again.

His fee dwarfs the £40million Newcastle paid Hoffenheim for Joelinton during the summer of 2019 and, while Howe admits a measure of discomfort at the ever-escalating transfer market, he will not spend for spending's sake.

Asked if Isak's price tag represented value for money, he said: "I definitely feel a responsibility to the price, it certainly wouldn't be a case of signing a player at any cost."

"I don't think that's the right way to act as a manager."

"It's an incredible market and I could never sit and say I think it's value for money just with the price."

Realism

"But when you look at the market, I think it's a good deal for us, otherwise I wouldn't have been pushing hard to try to do it."

"Transfer prices are out of any type of realism from when I was playing, but you just have to adapt to the times."

"If you don't adapt to the times and go with it, then you don't improve as a football club."

UP RANKINGS: Norrie

Cam out to win his first Slam

TENNIS: US OPEN

CAMERON Norrie is looking to build on his breakthrough Wimbledon by seizing his opportunity at the US Open.

The British number one achieved another landmark in what has been an exceptional 18 months by reaching his first grand slam semi-final at the All England Club last month.

And Norrie goes into the year's final slam buoyed by more strong performances on hard courts, reaching the final of an ATP Tour event in Mexico and then the semi-finals in Cincinnati last week.

He said of his Wimbledon achievements: "It was a lot of fun but I don't think my life has changed at all. I had the weekend there and then I left and I was preparing for the hard-court season, the best part of my season."

"It was a big goal at the start of the year to make the second week for the first time and to do that and go a couple further was obviously great and to play the level that I did in those rounds beyond that was very cool."

"Just the same goal, to try make the second week again and go from there."

Novak Djokovic revealed after their Wimbledon semi-final Norrie travels with his own scales and weighs himself before and after matches and practice to ensure he is getting his food and hydration exactly right.

The 27-year-old is at a career-high ranking of nine and, in the absence of Djokovic and Alexander Zverev this fortnight, is seeded in the top eight at a slam for the first time.

Norrie will not be getting ahead of himself, though, saying: "You always think Rafa is going to be done soon and he comes back and he plays a crazy level."

"I think there's so many good guys coming through. It is a different generation but I'm going to give myself the best chance and work as hard as I can to win a slam."

"I was obviously in the tournament because I was trying to win Wimbledon. It's looking a little bit more realistic now and especially my end goal of trying to be world one."

Norrie leads a five-strong British contingent, with Dan Evans also seeded and in good form, Andy Murray looking for a confidence-boosting run and Kyle Edmund back at a slam after knee surgery.

SCOTT TY PLEADS FOR HELP

Cherries boss needs new signings before window slams shut

SCOTT Parker believes Bournemouth's young squad are "struggling for air" and face more defeats like the 9-0 hammering at Liverpool unless help arrives before Thursday's transfer deadline.

Having overseen promotion as Championship runners-up last season, the Cherries began their Premier League return with a 2-0 home win against Aston Villa which suggested they could beat the drop.

By PAUL THOMAS

But the fixture list has not been kind and a 4-0 defeat at reigning champions Manchester City was compounded by last weekend's 3-0 home loss to in-form Arsenal.

Things would get even worse on Saturday afternoon as they suffered an Anfield annihilation as Liverpool recorded a record-equalling Premier League win.

Asked if he hoped that the 9-0 defeat was the lowest point of Bournemouth's season, Parker said: "At this present moment in time, yeah for sure. We hope it's that way."

"Definitely. "But at this moment in time, where we currently are, I can see some more coming, to be honest with you.

"We need to make a decision. That's just where it is. I think I've been clear on that from the minute I stepped in as manager of this football club.

"I've been clear throughout all of that in terms of how this season could look for us, these experiences what we're going to face, what they may look like and I stick by that. And that is exactly what it will look like.

"We need to make a decision and try and help this group, this young group, who at times are struggling for air.

Millions

"Every one of us – me, my staff, the fans – we need to make that decision, really."

Parker spoke well in the bowels of Anfield given what had just unfolded on the pitch – a performance that underlined the need for new faces before the deadline after what has been a quiet summer.

"I don't know if there will be more signings," the deflated Cherries boss said.

"We've been trying to do that right through the window this summer.

"There's millions of reasons why and there's loads of circumstances why this is not just as straightforward as not being able to sign players because players don't want to come or whatever it is.

"There's a lot of issues here for the reasons why we've not been able to do that and it just depends whether those issues resolve or we make a decision. That's it for us, really."

PASCAL IS TOP OF THE POTTS

By ANDY MILLOM

GRAHAM Potter believes Pascal Gross is arguably in the best form of his career after the German helped Brighton continue their strong start to the Premier League season.

Creative midfielder Gross hit the winner in the 1-0 victory over Leeds – his third of the campaign – to extend Albion's unbeaten top-flight run to a club-record nine.

The Seagulls sit just two points behind early leaders Arsenal following three wins and a draw from their opening four fixtures.

Gross has already surpassed his goal tally from last term, having also scored twice in his side's opening-weekend win at Manchester United.

Head coach Potter, who jokingly referenced ongoing questions about signing a "20-goal striker", hopes the 31-year-old can keep making key contributions.

"That's part of the challenge," said Potter, who allowed last season's top scorer Neal Maupay to join Everton. "Rather than wait for one individual, can others pop up for goals?"

"Pascal is probably performing at the level of his career; certainly his level since I've been working with him.

"If others can score and take the weight off this 20-goal striker that we're going to get, that would help us."

"As I pointed out the other day, there are only two of those in the Premier League, so it's not so simple."

Gross calmly slotted home the decisive goal in the 66th minute after being teed up by Leandro Trossard.

Brighton were booed off by sections of their support following a goalless draw with Leeds last November.

Potter hit back at fans then and was content to avoid a repeat scenario. "We were eighth in the Premier League at that point," he said.

"But I also understand the frustration because we played well and didn't win the game."

"Football is about emotions. People are entitled to have their opinion and I'm also entitled to communicate mine, and that's fine."

"There's no problem. We carry on working. Thankfully we've taken some steps."

"The start has been really good. The boys are playing at a really good level."

"They've done so consistently for a period of time, so we have to make sure we continue that."

Battling Ben hails team spirit at Gunners

BEN White says Arsenal's "attitude and desire" have played a key part in their perfect start to the season.

The Gunners are the only team in England to hold a 100 per cent record after Martin Odegaard and Gabriel Magalhaes goals cancelled out Aleksandar Mitrovic's opener to earn a 2-1 victory over Fulham.

For Gabriel, his late winner atoned for his error which led to Mitrovic breaking the deadlock after the Brazil defender was caught dawdling in possession.

The win leaves Mikel Arteta's side top of the table ahead of the visit of Aston Villa on Wednesday with a trip to Manchester United to follow.

"It's outstanding," White replied when asked about the spirit at Arsenal.

"Gabi had a little hiccup and the reaction that he gave was outstanding and helped us get the win, really.

"I think the attitude and the desire we all have every day in training is showing on the pitch now.

"It's obviously always nice to get the three points. They made it tough for us and we made it tough for ourselves with the goal but the reaction from the boys was outstanding.

"With Fulham, you always have a physical game. They've got a big boy in Mitrovic up top and he's hard to handle, but the boys did well."

Mitrovic's opener saw him reach 100 goals for Fulham as he hit his fourth of the season, eclipsing his return from the whole of the Whites' relegation campaign two years ago.

The Serbia striker was a handful for Gabriel and William Saliba as he brushed off any criticism he could not cut it in the top flight.

"I don't really care to be honest," he said.

"I know I had the confidence, the manager had the confidence, my team-mates had confidence in me, and what other people say I'm not really bothered.

"People have different opinions but I focus on myself, focus on keep working hard for the team, and when the team plays well I know we will create chances and I will score.

"It sounds nice, and I'm really happy to score 100 goals for this beautiful club, and hopefully there will be many more to come."

I WANT RONINNY TO STAY

Ten Hag keen to keep Portugeezer despite dropping him to the bench

ERIK TEN HAG is hopeful Cristiano Ronaldo will still be a Manchester United player when the transfer window slams shut.

The Portugal forward has been linked with a move to a Champions League club before Thursday's transfer deadline and was again left out of Ten Hag's starting line-up for Saturday's 1-0 win over Southampton.

Ronaldo came on after Bruno Fernandes had given the visitors the lead and at full-time stopped to salute the raucous United fans, leaving some to speculate he was saying goodbye.

But Ten Hag said: "We played with him. So we want him to stay. That is what we want. I hope so."

Ten Hag reiterated his position when asked if he would be satisfied should United not add to their forwards this week, adding: "We have Cristiano Ronaldo, we have Anthony Martial, we have Marcus Rashford, so then we are OK."

Ronaldo, who came on for Jadon Sancho, was one of three substitutes Ten Hag made at St Mary's, also swapping Anthony Elanga for new signing Casemiro in the 80th minute and Fred for Christian Eriksen in second-half stoppage time.

Casemiro completed his transfer from Real Madrid on Monday and his new boss was pleased to get him involved.

"I think it was quite good for him to see what the Premier League is like, its different style," Ten Hag said.

"He has played some games, he played one time 90 minutes, but he is fit, he had a good pre-season with a lot of training sessions and now we have to integrate him in a team, in a way of play, and integrate him with his team-mates."

The United gaffer is hopeful of bringing in Ajax forward Antony even if Ronaldo stays at Old Trafford until January at least.

The Old Trafford giants brought ten Hag over from the Dutch champions and then returned to sign defender Lisandro Martinez.

Breakthrough

United paid an initial 57.37million euros (£48.3m) for the Argentina international – a fee that could rise by a further 10m euros to around £56.7m – and Ajax now look set to land an even bigger windfall.

United have agreed to pay a fixed fee of 95million euros (£80.6million) with a further five million euros (£4.2million) in potential add-ons to sign the winger.

That news that will please Antony, who made his frustrations at not being allowed to leave the Dutch capital clear in an interview earlier this week.

"Since February of this year, my agents came to Amsterdam to inform Ajax of my desire to leave the club to face a new challenge and that some interested clubs would arrive and, with them, certainly a great offer," Antony said via Italian journalist Fabrizio Romano.

"During the window months, meetings concluded including a proposal from Ajax for a contract renewal. I made it clear once again I want to leave the club.

"Today in a meeting with the board I expressed my interest in leaving the club, this time with a considerable offer on the table.

"Others have already arrived but Ajax always refuses with the argument it only has five days to replace me.

"I'm not asking for Ajax to release me, I am asking Ajax to sell me for the highest bid that has ever been received for a player who plays in the Eredivisie."

Antony added: "I was very happy in Amsterdam, I won titles at Ajax, made friends and built part of my career, but now I reinforce that I am ready and full of motivation to follow my story and my dreams."

"People need to listen to me and understand that my motivation moves me towards happiness. I need this to continue performing at a high level. Ajax will always be in my heart."

Pleased

Tyrell Malacia, Martinez, Christian Eriksen and Casemiro have arrived so far this summer.

Victory at Southampton was a second in a row for United, who had started the Ten Hag era by losing their first two Premier League games.

But the former Ajax manager was pleased with the work rate of his side on the south coast. That's something he wants to see every time they step out on to the pitch.

He said: "I know that, here in the Premier League, are the best coaches and the best players and the highest intensity, and always in a different way."

"So that is quite interesting, and you have to adapt to it and also find certain ways to win games, and that is what we did today."

"When the season started, that was the problem, especially the second game (the 4-0 defeat at Brentford)."

"When you don't give everything, when you don't have the attitude for 100 per cent, when you don't have the right team spirit, you don't have to talk about philosophy or game plan or whatever."

"First there has to be a team, and there has to be spirit, and you have to be 100 per cent committed in every game."

VILLA HUNT ALFIE DEAL

ASTON Villa are battling Sevilla to make a late move for Rangers striker Alfredo Morelos.

The Colombian hitman is not wanted by Ibrox manager Giovanni Van Bronckorst – as much for his knack of being sent off as anything else.

Villa are interested with boss Steven Gerrard knowing Morelos well from his time with the Glasgow giants. But Sevilla are also in the hunt and reports in Spain suggest talks have taken place.

The Colombian is unsettled at Ibrox and was left out of the Champions League play-off against PSV Eindhoven.

Crystal Palace are also interested with Patrick Vieira a known admirer of the 26-year-old.

A bidding war could push Morelos's value past the £15m mark. He has scored 113 goals in 223 outings for Rangers.

Reds ready to sign Jude at Christmas

LIVERPOOL have a verbal agreement to sign Jude Bellingham – and the move could happen when the window opens again at Christmas.

Borussia Dortmund are refusing to sell the midfielder in the current window which closes on Thursday.

But the player wants the move and reports in Germany suggest he has a verbal agreement in place with Liverpool.

Next summer is thought to be the likeliest time for the deal to go through – but the Reds will have another attempt to persuade the Germans to let the England midfielder head to Anfield in January.

Jürgen Klopp would have to pay a premium to do the deal then – with £80m mentioned as a possible fee. Liverpool may yet pull a rabbit out of the hat in the final hours of the window.

Klopp admitted they need another midfielder as injuries continue to bite.

RB Leipzig's Konrad Laimer is the name in the frame with the combative 25-year-old in the final 10 months of his deal.

He could be signed for a cut-price £10m.
